PREFACE.

In submitting to the public the Catalogue of the Collection of Engravings formed by the late Lieut. Col. Durrant, it is almost needless to expatiate on their merits. So long and well known was the late possessor, and so ardent in his pursuit, that but few public sales during the last thirty years were unattended by him.

The beauty of the impression and perfect preservation of the print was an object of his most careful solicitude, and in numerous instances has a print been exchanged until the finest one could be procured. A collection, therefore, of so much beauty seldom occurs, there being scarcely an impression that may not be considered of the finest quality.

His great delight was in obtaining the finest old English Portraits of the most remarkable characters in British history; and to this portion of his collection we would particularly direct the attention of Amateurs, no such series, as to beauty of condition, having ever been before formed.

In regard to the works of the Old Masters, there will be found some exquisite examples, the acquisition of which would reflect credit on any possessor of them.

The works of Hogarth are of extraordinary quality, being not only in the earliest states, but in their original purity of condition.

It is proper to notice, that the works of Faithorne and Hollar, which were in the choicest states, have been bequeathed to an old friend, thus accounting for the absence of such productions in the present collection.

Wellington Street, Strand.

EARLY BRITISH PORTRAITS,

INTITLED

THE BAZILITLOGIA,

BOOK OF KINGS AND EMINENT MEN DURING THE REIGNS OF ELIZABETH AND JAMES I.

This extremely rare and interesting Series of Portraits is esteemed the most valuable Book of Prints existing. They were originally published as separate publications, at different periods of the reigns of Elizabeth and James I., but were occasionally sold as one series, with a title prefixed intitled "Basiliwlogia, or a Book of Kings, being the true and lively Effigies of all our English Kings," &c. London, 1618.

So rare is this Collection, that but five or six copies have been discovered, and they materially varying both in number of plates and beauty of impression,—the most complete was the celebrated De la Bere volume sold by Mr. Christie on March 27, 1811,—which contained 152 Portraits, and produced £601. 15s. Another was the Fife Volume, sold by Mr. Stewart on February 14, 1812, which contained 158 plates, and brought £

Two or three other copies have since been discovered, but with a far less number of plates. The whole of these volumes have been cut up and sold separately,—the rarity therefore of anything like a perfect series is proportionably increased. It is to be remarked, that while each of these volumes contained some fine impressions, others were very indifferent; and so are the few volumes still existing in their original form, of which there are two in the Bodleian Library, (varying in the number of plates), and one in the Bibliotheque at Paris.

The present Collection was formed out of the sales of the above mentioned volumes, and others procured from the celebrated Collections of Portraits formed by Bindley, Sykes, Dowdeswell, Towneley, Horace Walpole, &c., and may justly be considered the most beautiful existing, both in regard to the brilliancy of impression and purity of preservation. Many of the plates have been frequently changed, when a finer impression was to be procured, and that without regard to expence,—the series having cost Col. Durrant upwards of £500.

They are also highly valuable in connection with the history of English Art, being the first published British Portraits, and chiefly by native artists.
